

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

Applications should be submitted to the director of the collaborative specialization, Dr. Michael Haan, SSC 5412.

Please print or type

Student Name

E-mail

UWO Student Number

Home
Department

Degree

MA/MSc

Course Load

Full Time

Part Time

PhD

Start Date of Current Degree

Current term

Supervisor(s)

Keywords describing research area

Student Signature _____ Date _____

Supervisor Signature _____ Date _____

Please note the following:

Students in the Collaborative Graduate Specialization in Migration and Ethnic Relations are expected to:

- 1) Fulfill all requirements of their home department
- 2) Complete all course, comprehensive examination, and thesis requirements as listed on the program website
- 3) Participate in the Colloquium Series in Migration and Ethnic Relations during the Fall and Winter terms throughout their graduate careers, with at least 75% attendance required (an exception will be made for terms in which students are out of town for the purpose of field data collection – please discuss this with the Director if it applies to you)

Questions should be addressed to the Director of the Collaborative Graduate Specialization in Migration and Ethnic Relations (Michael Haan, mhaan2@uwo.ca, 519-661-2111 ext. 85110)

COLLABORATIVE SPECIALIZATION IN MIGRATION AND ETHNIC RELATIONS

MA/MSc

Course requirements

- Colloquium Series in Migration and Ethnic Relations (non-credit requirement, though some departments may allow this to be taken for credit)
- Two half courses in the area, including one from a program other than the student's home program

Thesis or major paper (as specified by student's home program) in the area of Migration and Ethnic Relations

- In the case of a thesis, the thesis advisor and the university examiner must be from faculty associated with the collaborative program
- In the case of a major paper, the advisor must be associated with the collaborative program

PhD

Course requirements

- Colloquium Series in Migration and Ethnic Relations (non-credit requirement, though some departments may allow this to be taken for credit)
- Two half courses in the area, including one from a program other than the student's home program. Following the practice of given programs, courses taken at the Masters level may be credited toward the PhD requirements

Comprehensive Examination in Migration and Ethnic Relations (as specified by student's home program)

Thesis in the area of Migration and Ethnic Relations

- The thesis advisor and the university examiner must be from faculty associated with the collaborative program

These components will serve as partial fulfillment of the requirements for a graduate degree in the home department.